State Senator JP Morrell Reports $150,000 Raised

(New Orleans, LA.) This morning, State Senator JP Morrell announced that he has raised $150,000 to date in his re-election campaign for the 3rd District Senate seat.

“I am very humbled and very pleased with the support I’ve been receiving in the community. I consider our fundraising success to be an honor because it means that people of Orleans and Jefferson Parishes approve of my performance as their senator,” said Morrell. “I look forward to returning to the Senate and continuing to serve the people of Orleans, Jefferson, and St. Bernard Parishes.”

In addition to successful fundraising efforts, Sen. Morrell has garnered the support of several Orleans and Jefferson Parish leaders such as, State Senators Karen Carter Peterson and Ed Murray, State Representatives Jared Brossett and Walt Leger, New Orleans City Council member Kristen Gisleson Palmer, Jefferson Parish Councilmember Byron Lee, and Jefferson Parish Sheriff Newell Normand.
